Dear Sir: I am using Ascher's Beginners' Orchestra Book, Ascher's Advanced Orchestra Book, Ascher's Folio of Concert Favorites No. 1, and Ascher's Folio of Concert Favorites No. 2 with great satisfaction, and wonder how I ever got along without them. Any Supervisor of orchestras in Schools who examines these books carefully cannot but feel that they are what he has been wanting for years.

CONRAD YAHREIS, Supervisor of Orchestras, Dayton Public Schools.

I take pleasure in recommending the publications of Emil Ascher to teachers and supervisors of music in public schools who desire music suitable for school orchestras. The Beginners' Orchestra and the Advanced Orchestra both are valuable books, especially for orchestras in the elementary schools.

The Victor in use in the Penmanship Class of Miss Anna E. Hill, Bradley School, Asbury Park, N. J.

Hundreds of schools are using The Victor and Victor Records in the teaching of movement writing

FORMERLY,

The teacher of penmanship consumed in counting much energy which should have been saved as a reserve force.

NOW,

Rhythm, through music, takes the place of the old-fashioned counting; it relieves nerve tension and monotony, develops uniform speed and accuracy, and brings into the recitation the all-important requisite of INTEREST.

Rhythm plays an important part in life, and it should be used in the education of every child.

Have you tried these records for Penmanship and Rhythm work? (Waltz rhythms are adapted to all oval work, and three-count formations. Selections in two and four-part rhythm are suited to many letters, words and sentence exercises, and may be easily adapted by the teacher.)
